

Extra Mile Award

The Prince Edward Island Home and School Federation’s Extra Mile Award, initiated in the 2004 - 2005 school year, recognizes any school staff person (teacher, administrator, youth worker, administrative assistant, EA, custodian, etc.) who exemplifies going the extra mile - over and above the call of duty.

Recipients will receive recognition at their respective schools during Teacher/Staff Appreciation Week, held in February.

1. There shall be one or two “Extra Mile Awards” presented annually.
2. The selection committee shall consist of at least three members of the PEI Home and School Federation board.
3. Nominations are to be submitted to a local Home and School Association. Names are brought forward to the Home and School by any individual member in your school community.
4. Describe the nominee’s contribution in the following areas:
 - Outline of exemplary service to Island students

- Demonstration of caring attitude towards Island students and youth.
- Evidence of going the extra mile to assist students to thrive in any or all areas of school life whether academically, socially, emotionally, or physically.
- Demonstration of ability to motivate young adults to reach their full potential.
- Evidence that service bettered the lives of these young Islanders.

5. What to include in your nomination package:

- ✓ Cover letter from Home and School Association President
