

Prince Edward Island Home and School Federation 2026 Steve McQuaid Volunteer of the Year Award

Criteria

The Prince Edward Island Home and School Federation Inc. is pleased to announce the Volunteer of the Year Award for exceptional contribution to the total well-being of children and youth in P.E.I. through service at the Local Home and School Association.

The Volunteer of the Year Award will acknowledge and recognize the valuable contributions and achievements of excellence of individuals within a Home and School Association. One award will be presented annually during the Annual Meeting. The Board Members of the Federation will constitute the Selection Committee for the award.

Eligibility/Selection:

All Home and School Associations are invited to nominate a member from your Association who has demonstrated exceptional service to the well-being of children and youth as a Home and School volunteer and has made a significant contribution to improving the school environment for children and youth. The nomination must include the following information:

- A. Years of service in local Home and School Association(s).
- B. Details of Home and School Executive and/or Committee work at the local level.
- C. Other information related to Home and School involvement.
- D. Letter(s) of support are required from parents, principals, teachers, and students.

NOTE: Nominations, that are unsuccessful in any given year, may be resubmitted the following year by bringing the required information up-to-date as of the time of re-submission.

Deadline for submissions: Friday, March 6, 2026
